M. Damodaran

In a career spanning over four decades, M. Damodaran has held a number of important positions in the Central and State Governments and in India's financial sector, including Chairman, Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI), Chairman, Unit Trust of India (UTI), Chairman, Industrial Development Bank of India (IDBI) and Chief Secretary, Government of Tripura. While at SEBI, he was elected Chairman of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO)'s 80 member Emerging Markets Committee for two years. As Chairman SEBI, he has brought improved practices to India's securities market. He was instrumental in bringing into force Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement and is widely acknowledged as one of the India's foremost champions of Corporate Governance.

He is presently a consultant, advisor, coach and mentor and sits on the Boards of some leading companies as well as on the Advisory Boards of some foreign entities and is the founder Chairman of the Indian Institute of Management Tiruchirapalli.

His tireless crusade to promote meaningful corporate governance and stakeholder democracy sets him apart.

We are privileged to recognize him as a Gatekeeper of Governance.
