U K Sinha

U K Sinha, a member of IAS, is Chairman of Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). He was appointed as Chairman of Asia-Pacific Regional Committee (APRC) of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions (IOSCO).

He has been CMD of Unit Trust of India Asset Management Company (UTIAMC). Prior to that, he has held several key positions in Government of India. He was Joint Secretary looking after Capital Markets, External Commercial Borrowings, Banking and Currency and Coins. During his tenure at Ministry of Finance, he spearheaded several initiatives, such as Banking Sector reforms, and Capital Market reforms. He is credited with starting the micro pension movement in the country for mobilising retirement savings from low earning – unorganized sector workers. He was and continues to be a member of several committees of the Government of India.

A crusader for the rights of retail investors, he strives incessantly for improvement in the regulatory framework for governance.

We are privileged to recognize him as a Gatekeeper of Governance.
