

Home > News > Agencies

Mumbai, Nov 28 (PTI) A two-day annual gathering on corporate governance promoted by former Sebi chief M Damodaran's advisory firm, Excellence Enablers, will start Thursday.

Two-day corporate governance conference from Thursday

Published: November 28, 2018 7:48 PM IST

Mumbai, Nov 28 (PTI) A two-day annual gathering on corporate governance promoted by former Sebi chief M Damodaran's advisory firm, Excellence Enablers, will start Thursday.

The summit comes in the backdrop of failures on a jump in corporate governance lapses in 2018.

Industry stalwarts including Uday Kotak, Anand Mahindra, Deepak Parekh, Rajnish Kumar, Arundhati Bhattacharya, Sunil Mehta and Ishaat Hussain, among others, will be speaking at the summit, a statement said.

It will seek to address concerns on meaningful regulation, accounting and auditing, banking sector concerns, the Board-CEO relationship, need for effective communication and the relationship between corporate governance and performance, it said.

Mahavitaran to offer Rs 10 discount for paperless facility * To encourage consumers to adopt its 'go green' facility and get electricity bill details on email or SMS, state discom Mahavitaran has decided to offer a discount of Rs 10 on their bills from December 1 this year.

The consumers who want to avail the facility will have to register their numbers through the Mahavitaran mobile app or through the website.

Yes Securities hires ex-IIFL partner Amar Ambani research head * Yes Bank's securities arm has appointed Amar Ambani as president and head of research.

He was partner and head of research at IIFL Investment Managers earlier.

Finablr acquires TimesofMoney from Network International * Digital payments solutions provider TimesofMoney has been acquired by global player Finablr for an undisclosed sum from Network International.

TimesofMoney caters to institutions and merchants through services including white-labelled mobile payment platforms, payment gateways and payment aggregation solutions, an official statement said.

This is published unedited from the PTI feed.